HORSE SHOW HELD AT SPANISH FORK

More Than One Hundred Thoroughbred Animals on Exhibition.

Special to The Tribune.

SPANISH FORK, April 21 .- One of the finest horse shows ever seen in Utah county was held here today. More than 100 beautiful thoroughbred horses from all parts of Utah county were shown. Almost every type of pure-blooded horse was shown, from the heavy Percheron to the tiny Shetland.

The show was opened this morning with a parade through the city. The parade was led by the new Commercial band. The volunteer fire department occupied the first section of the parade and the horses followed.

Por the horse show people from every section of the county came to Spanish Fork. They met in the afternoon at the city payllion, where a banquet was lerved. For the visitors a dance was let was lerved. For the visitors a dance was let was lerved. For the visitors a dance was let was lerved. For the visitors a dance was let was level. At a meeting of horsemen held at the payllion hast night Professors L. A. Merrill and B. S. Hinckley gave interesting lectures on the improvement of horses and the most useful for the farmers to valie.

The show was opened this morning with a parade and the city. The countries canal, which obtains its water supply from the Weber river, has just been completed. Water was turned into the big ditch yesterday for the first time.

This project is one of the biggest irrigation improvements ever made in Utah. The canal is nine and a half miles below Devil's Gate in Weber canyon and runs to the top of the sand ridge three miles south of Ogden City, providing was—

The club will conduct a spring race meeting at Ogden from May 1 to May 17, inclusive, except Sundays, with six races daily. The promoters are J. H. Parsons, B. E. West and M. J. West. Frank St. D. Skinner will be presiding judge and secretary and James Henley will be the starter.

Mrs. Coop recently returned from New York City and is now in Salt Lake City, it is said, awaiting the divorce hearing in Ogden. It was hinted this afternoon that a settlement out of court will probably be made and the action for divorce withdrawn. Mrs. Coop is seeking a divorce on the ground of failure to provide. An answer to the complaint, filed by Prof. Coop, denied in detail the allegations of his wife's complaint. Mrs. Coop is seeking allmony, and it is said that if the settlement is made it will be on the basis of the payment of a specified mothly sum to his wife.
